Jett and White to Be Tried For Cockrell's Murder.

Motion for a New Trial in the Marcum Murder Trial Was Overruled.

RUSSIA'S LATEST MOVE WAS FINED FOR CONTEMPT

NEW TRIAL REFUSED.

Cynthiana, Aug. 15.—Jett and White are to be tried at Cynthiana for the murder of Jim Cockrell. The case will be called September 7.

Attorneys for the commonwealth declined to join in the motion of the defense for a new trial for Jett for the murder of Marcus.

The judge overruled the motion and attorneys for the commonwealth decided to try Jett in the Cockrell case, pending appeal on which a stay of execution of sixty days was granted.

RUSSIA TO ENFORCE DEMANDS.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 15.—The squadron of the Russian Black Sea fleet has been ordered to sail for Turkish waters. Notification of the move has been telegraphed from Sebastopol from the Russian ambassador at Constantinople.

The dispatch of the squadron is to emphasize the Russian intention of exacting complete compliance with her demands in connection with the murder by a Turkish gendarme of the consul at Monastir.

CORBETT SATISFIED

Ex-Champion Shows He's Game and the Real Stuff.

Shaking Jeffries by the Hand, He Said "No One Can Touch You."

San Francisco, Aug. 15.—Corbett said after the fight: "I did my best and lost. I fought the best I knew. Jeffries was too big for me, and he is the best man in the world. If the public is satisfied with my fight I am. I am glad to give Jeffries all the credit that is his due. I have no personal feelings in the matter. I have fought my last fight."

Corbett received many telegrams from Eastern friends, principally the atrical, offering him lucrative engagements, win or lose.

Ten thousand men were seated about the arena in Mechanics' pavilion at 9 o'clock tonight, representing an expenditure for seating accommodations aggregating $54,000. This is the largest crowd that ever assembled at a ringside in this country, and the third largest sum in dollars and cents ever contested for. The two that exceeded it in receipts were the Corbett-Jeffries fight at Coney Island, $66,000, and the Corbett-McCoy fight at Madison Square Garden, New York, $63,000.

After the fight was over Corbett quickly recovered, walked over to Jeffries and shook him warmly by the hand. He said:

"Jim, you beat me fairly. You stand alone. No one can touch you." Jeffries gets $33,728, and Corbett $10,910.

Mr. Earl Weeks went to St. Louis yesterday.

WEEK'S NEWS IN THE BUSINESS WORLD

Clearings this week were $685,676. Same last year $583,826. Increase 101,850

Business for the fall trade has been very good with local wholesalers and the indications are for a very good season. This is the condition in all lines. Local manufacturers report good booking of orders and "capacity runs" a promise.

Business with the retailers, too, is good. Clearance sales are the order of business and some demands are noted for all goods.

Interest grows in the crusade in drinks, and yesterday the prosecution scored a victory and fines were assessed.

The Messenger says:

"Lee Wicker was fined $75 and costs and George Tilley was fined $60 and costs Thursday afternoon for selling cream ale. Tilley sold two bottles of cream ale to R. M. Allen of Lexington last June. Tilley was working for Wicker at the time.

"The case was the same one in which there was a hung jury Wednesday, in which McCartney and Dr.

List, chemists of Paducah, and Prof.

LaBach of Lexington testified. Prof.

LaBach analyzed the ale bought by Mr. Allen and testified that one bottle contained 4.05 per cent alcohol. Dr.

List was not present, but his affidavit said he had analyzed a bottle of like liquid and there was absolutely no alcohol, while Mr. McCartney testified that a bottle furnished by Mr. Wicker to him contained only 1.76 per cent alcohol. All agreed that over 2 per cent formed an alcoholic beverage."

POLICE COURT.

"Old King Cole," Accorsi, Behan

and Sherman, four of the Jackson base ball players, had a general mix-up among themselves on lower Broadway

last night after the excursion landed,

and as a result they were all arrested.

Two of them presented countenances that looked like the last rose of summer and Cole appears to have gone up against a thresher or two. All pleading the investigation would not say whether this was true or not.

A great deal of interest is taken in the case, and in some quarters it is even money which side put the bogus ballots, if there were any, in the box.

FEAST OF ASSUMPTION

SPECIAL SERVICES TODAY AT

ST. FRANCIS DE SALES

CHURCH.

The Feast of the Assumption was commemorated at St. Francis de Sales Catholic church today. Services were held at 9 o'clock this morning and will be held this evening at 7 o'clock.

Roy Gage, who is at present president of the association and also captain and manager of the team, ordered

Dan O'Connor on the bench for failing to recognize discipline and O'Connor now refuses to play as long as Gage is manager. It has been reported that Manager Gage would be taken out, but nothing definite has been done. Gage is now playing right field in the place of Akers, who was disabled at Clarksville.

There is a report out to the effect that Orr and Akers will be released,

but the management stated this morning that this had not yet been decided on. Akers has been crippled since he joined the team, but still has played excellent ball, while Orr has had bad support in nearly every game he has lost. There will probably be several changes made, but the management said that nothing was yet definite enough to give out for publication.

TRUNK NOT LOCATED—Mrs. T.

C. Leeb, who had a trunk checked over the Big Four railroad in Canada for Paducah ten days ago, has not been able to find a trace of it, and

Mr. Leeb will today go to Louisville

PRETTY OUTDOOR PARTY.

Mrs. Charles K. Wheeler entertained Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at her home, Fifth and Court streets, with a tea on the lawn in compliment to her sister-in-law, Mrs. George Willing of Waco, Tex., and Mrs. Charles Trueheart of Louisville. It was an unusually pretty summer function. Vases of flowers were placed in the open windows of the house and the tea table on the lawn was adorned with a huge bowl of La France roses. Ice tea was served from a punch bowl by Miss Jeanette Campbell. Among those who assisted Mrs. Wheeler in receiving were: Mesdames Willig Trueheart, W. F. Bradshaw, James Campbell, R. G. Terrell; Misses Elizabeth Schmidt, Kathleen Whitefoot, Henrietta Roper, Anne Howell, Minnie Terrell, Little Terrell, Carrie Trueheart, Frances Terrell and Frances Wallace.

PADUCAHAN'S CONCERT DEBUT

Much interest is felt in the concert which Mrs. Minnie Scodell will give here in September 28, as a debut to a contemplated concert career. Mrs. Scodell will be assisted by the teacher with whom she has studied the past year in Chicago, Signor Marescalchi, who is a musician of note. The selections for the concert will be from the "Barber of Seville," in which Marescalchi once appeared with Patti.

Mrs. Scodell has been in training for her work for the past year, besides the previous musical advantages she has had, and her naturally sweet voice has been much improved by cultivation. Paducah, which is Mrs. Scodell's native place, is proud of her talent, and her opening night here will doubtless attract a large audience. Local talent will assist in the concert.

TO VIRGINIA SCHOOLS.

A number of young Paducahans will go to school out of the city during the coming fall and winter. Miss Margery Scott will go to Roanoke, Va. She will leave Monday with her mother, Mrs. F. L. Scott, on the excursion to Old Point Comfort and will go from there to Roanoke. Mr. George Thompson, Jr., will also go on the Old Point Comfort trip and will go to the Virginia Military school. Misses Lillie May Winstead, Blanche Hills, Frances Wallace and probably Bella and Fannie Coleman will leave September 12 for Hollins, Va., to attend school.

MISS BUCKNER COMPLIMENTED

A paper of St. Joseph, Mo., says of a young woman well known in Paducah: "Miss Blanche Buckner, who has spent the past two months in St. Joseph, the guest of her sister, Mrs. James N. Barnes, Jr., left last evening for her home in Louisville, Ky. Miss Buckner is a typical Kentucky girl, whose charm of manner, combined with an unusually beautiful soprano voice, has won for her many admiring friends in St. Joseph, who sincerely regret her departure from their midst."

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Miss Louise Beyer entertained the Columbia club Wednesday afternoon at her home on the Mayfield road. A dainty luncheon was served. The guests were: Mesdames Henry Metzler, Will Theobald, Conrad Schmidt, F. Metzler, George Heyer, John Theobald; Misses Katie Smith, Annie Roff, Maggie Knoff, Amelia Unrath, Mary Berger, Minnie Pieper, Kate Schmitz.

The Junior Epworth League of the Broadway Methodist church was entertained Wednesday by Miss Happy Newell with a picnic at Wallace park. The party went to the park at 11 o'clock and remained until evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Nance entertained with a party for their grandson, Edward Earl Cash of Fancy Farm, Monday afternoon at their home on Jackson street. It was in honor of the child's first birthday.

Mrs. J. K. Burkam gave a hay ride last night in honor of her nieces, Misses Mary and Katherine Burkam of Lawrenceburg, Ind. The party went to Lone Oak.

Misses Edna and Hortense Dufot entertained with a dance Friday evening at their home, 1415 North Twelfth street.

Mrs. Chris Kolb entertained the Willing Workers society of the German Evangelical church Thursday evening.

Mrs. Richard Calisett entertained the Ladies of the Macabees Wednesday evening at her home in Littleville.

WEDDINGS.

The marriage of Rev. W. H. Robinson, pastor of the Second Baptist church of this city, and Miss Bertha Brown of Sheffield, Ala., took place at Sheffield Thursday evening. Mr. Robinson is a popular young minister and the bride is an attractive young lady well known in Paducah, where she visited her brother, Mr. Leslie Brown of Wurtz's addition.

PERSONAL.

Miss Carrie Warren left today for a visit to Hannibal, Mo.

Mrs. Buford Gathright left this week for Los Angeles, Cal., for a several weeks' visit.

Mrs. Robert Sory of Nortonville is the guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Reddick.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bradshaw will go to Petoskey, Mich., next week for Mrs. Bradshaw's health.

Miss Hallie Hisey will return next week from a visit to Harrodsburg and other points in Central Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Weille and little daughter Marie will leave Monday on the excursion to Old Point Comfort.

Miss Mary Lee Clarke will return Saturday for a several months' visit to Henderson and Elkton, Ky., and Savannah, Ga.

Mrs. May Bieke and Misses Mabel Bieke and Laura Sanders made the round trip this week on the steamer Clyde up the Tennessee river.

Misses Sisie Garnett, May Garnett and Cornelia DeTreville arrived Friday from Hopkinsville to visit Miss Mabel Weeks on West Jefferson street.

Mrs. F. M. Murray, formerly Miss Malde Bradshaw of this city and now of Pine Bluff, Ark., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bradshaw.

Mrs. D. C. Newman and little daughters, Ross and Lillie May, returned today to their home in Jackson, Tenn., after a visit to Mrs. S. H.

Winstead.

Miss Hettie Smith left Thursday for Southern California for her health. It is likely that Miss Smith will locate in California permanently, and her Paducah friends regret to give her np.

Miss Anne Bradshaw arrived home today from Lake Winona, Ind., where she has been taking a summer course in music. She was accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Mulvihill of Cincinnati, who will be her guest for several weeks.

Among the Paducahans who will go to Chicago Tuesday on the annual excursion over the I. C. are: Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Decker, Mrs. L. E. Girard, Mrs. Pat Lally, Miss Fannie Whitlock, Mrs. Mike Michael and Miss Adell Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott will arrive from Montgomery, Ala., next week to visit Mr. Scott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Scott, Madison and Eighth streets. Mr. and Mrs. Scott were married in Louisville a few weeks ago and have since been visiting the bride's home in Alabama. They will likely make their home in this city.

INSANE MAN'S PEED

SHOT INTO A CROWD AND KILLED THREE.

Winfield, Kan., Aug. 15.—A frightful killing occurred here while German's band was playing its weekly concert on the main street of the town to a crowd of 5,000 people. Gilbert Twigg, a crazy man, 30 years of age, opened fire on the crowd with a double-barreled shotgun loaded with bullets.

As a result four are now dead, three dying and no less than twenty injured, perhaps five or six fatally. The dead are:

Sterling Race, a carpenter of this city.

Dawson Tillotson, a barber of this city, whose brains were blown out.

Peg Howman, a carpenter of Oxford Kan.

Gilbert Twigg, the man who did the shooting, was killed by Officer Nichols.

TOO OLD TO SUPPORT FAMILY.

Morganfield, Ky., Aug. 15.—James Ham, a farmer living near Grove Center, this county, shot himself with a Winchester rifle last night, and cannot possibly recover. He left a note stating that he was going to kill himself because he had gotten too old to support his family.

PHYSICIAN AND DRUGGISTS.

Ferd & Sturgeon, a prominent drug firm at Rocky Hill Station, Ky., writes: "We were requested by Dr. G. H. Snigley to send for Herbine for the benefit of our customers. We ordered three dozen in December, and we are glad to say Herbine has given such great satisfaction that we have duplicated this order three times, and today we gave your salesman another order. We beg to say Dr. G. B. Snigley takes pleasure in recommending Herbine." 50c bottle at DuBois, Kelt & Co.

KING PETER HAS ENOUGH.

London, Aug. 15.—The Daily Telegraph prints a dispatch from Vienna which says that there is an unconfirmed report that King Peter, of Serbia, has threatened to abdicate, as he is virtually a prisoner in the hands of the military party.

WATCH FOR A CHILL.

However slight at this time of the year and in this climate, it is the forerunner of malaria. A disposition to yawn and an all-tired-out feeling even comes before the chill. Herbine, by its prompt stimulative action on the liver, drives the malarial germs out of the system, purifies the blood, tones up the system and restores health. 50c at DuBois, Kelt & Co.

Attorneys Sam Crossland of Mayfield and W. F. Bradshaw, Sr., went to Murray this morning on business.

WEATHER BULLETIN.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Last bulletin gave forecasts of disturbance to cross continent 15 to 19, warm wave 15 to 18, cool wave 17 to 21.

Next disturbance will reach Pacific coast about 20, cross west of Rockies by close of 21, great central valleys 22 to 24, eastern states 25.

Warm wave will cross west of Rockies about 20, great central valleys 22, eastern states 24. Cool wave will cross west of Rockies about 23, great central valleys 25, eastern states 27.

This disturbance will belong to a period of dangerous storms. Probably two storm centers will affect the United States and one in Canada. One a tropical storm on the Gulf coast and two moving from the northwest. These will probably come together south of latitude 40 and form a storm of great force. At the same time a wave of very low temperature will come in behind the northwestern storms.

Temperature accompanying the low of this disturbance will not go high and altogether it will belong to a period of very cool weather, the warm wave being of very short duration.

This is not expected to be the most severe storm of the season, but a wise precaution will be to watch the elements closely from 22 to 27.

Showers will be general to end of month and temperature will, as an average, rapidly decline after 17.

The Dick Clyde ran an excursion to Metropolis last night. A large crowd was in attendance.

DAILY THOUGHT.

THE WEATHER.

Showers and warmer tonight. Sunday showers.

Gov. Taylor was deliberately robbed of the office to which he was elected in Kentucky, is the way the St. Louis Globe-Democrat looks at it. The jury of the scheme is still oozing out in trials and retrials that are not allowed to establish any facts the Gobellites consider unacceptable.

Those people who claim that no man can make honestly a million dollars in a lifetime can find food for reflection in the career of Edward Dwyer of New York, who has three times been a millionaire, has lost it and is now a bankrupt owing nearly $400,000, and has but his clothes as assets. If a man can spend three fortunes of a million dollars in a lifetime it seems reasonable that somebody else can make it.

Several important matters are to come up at the extraordinary session of congress to begin October 12. President Roosevelt desires some financial legislation, and it is understood will also recommend the passage of a bill making the Cuban reciprocity bill effective. One reason the president insists on Cuban reciprocity legislation is that he feels, according to dispatches, that it is a duty left as a legacy by President McKinley. He was convinced that President McKinley promised the Cubans closer commercial relations in return for their consent to accept the Platt amendment. The financial legislation will depend largely on financial conditions which prevail this fall.

Herr Böcker, commercial counselor of Germany, has completed a book on the progress of America, which he recently visited, and reports that every indication shows that the prosperity will continue and that America will still find the largest market for her industrial production within her own borders. He admits that protective duties have enabled the United States to compete successfully in foreign markets, but he does not consider this as ground for reprisal, as the world is wide enough for both the United States and Germany. The lessons that Germany has to learn from America, the representative says, are the specialization of industry the reduction of cost through the United States of labor-saving machinery, and the distribution of work among affiliated companies, although, as regards the last named, the baron admits that he does not regard this as so easy in Germany as in a new country.

Henry Youtsey's explanation of the affidavit he made that Caleb Powers was innocent, by producing a statement purporting to have been signed by Powers himself, waiving the truth or falsity of the affidavit, would be absurd to anyone except men selected with a view to convicting Powers, innocent or guilty. That Youtsey, who says he was in a conspiracy to kill Senator Goebel, and is an acknowledged perjurer in other respects, should have dispensed such a pious compunction against making an affidavit he now says was a lie, is ridiculous. His whole attitude towards other alleged conspirators since he became a convict has been tinged with malice and vindictiveness, and the new statement he has presented in this trial is probably only a plan to extricate himself from the dilemma of now swearing that certain things are true which he had previously made affidavit are untrue. Possibly Youtsey has some paper signed by others showing that he was an honorary member of this conspiracy he tells about, and was extended through the paper immunity from punishment in this world or the next. The idea that a man who confesses he conspired to commit cold-blooded murder would hesitate to make a false affidavit, or require a signed statement that it was false before signing it, could not be credited by any but the partisan blind.

BUT THE PRISONER WAS AF-TERWARDS RELEASED
BY THE JUDGE.

Officer Albert Seuser last evening saw Chris Winner, a German, in a lower Court street house, and when the man espied the officer he broke and ran. He was overhauled, and no explanation being given for his peculiar action, was taken to the city hall. The officers are confident he is wanted somewhere for something, but as they could learn nothing about him he was released.

MR. AL YOUNG NOTIFIED OF HIS FATHER'S DEATH AT MT. CARMEL.

Mr. Al E. Young, of the Sun job department, this morning received news of the death at Mt. Carmel, Ill., of his father. Mr. Stephen Young, who had been ill for a year past. The deceased was 71 years old and leaves a wife and only one child, Mr. Al Young. The latter left at noon to attend the funeral.

STILL OUT OF REACH.

Changes Made by Reason of New Division—Big Train to Chicago Today.

OTHER LATE RAILROAD NEWS

Tomorrow at noon the new time card on the I. C. will go into effect with the opening of the new Cairo extension of the road. The track has been ballasted thoroughly and is now in prime condition for service. Trains will begin tomorrow morning, although the time card does not go into effect until noon.

There will be an accommodation passenger train leaving Paducah in the morning and evening, the latter being a fast train and carrying the St. Louis sleeper. The Hopkinsville train has changed time and will hereafter arrive in Paducah at 9:20 o'clock, leaving at 9:25 and making all stops between here and East Cairo. This train will return here in the evening, arriving at 8:20 and leaving at 8:25 for Hopkinsville.

At 7 o'clock p. m. the St. Louis express will leave, making all the stops between here and Cairo to accommodate those passengers traveling between Paducah and East Cairo. The St. Louis express will return in the morning, arriving at 7:45 a. m., in time to connect with the Fulton train, which will not be affected by the time card.

Besides the passenger trains a manifest and local freight will be run, leaving in the morning and returning at night. This is the arrangement of the "proposed schedule," which was not changed when the time card was made out.

The new schedule does not affect the running of the St. Louis trains over the Carbondale route. The trains will leave as formerly except that the night train will carry a chair car instead of a sleeper.

Mr. Julius Rothschild, formerly of the city, who was first clerk to Engineer L. A. Washington of the Illinois Central, now city engineer of Paducah, was here yesterday en route from Louisville to St. Louis. Mr. Rothschild's success has been gratifying. He went to Louisville from here and from there to St. Louis. He is now chief clerk of the superintendent of terminals at St. Louis.

Train No. 1, from New Orleans to Chicago, will today be run in six sections, an annual occurrence. The big annual excursion will be run today, which necessitates the addition of extra coaches to accommodate the excursion. Excursion rates are in effect at every station between New Orleans and Chicago.

Mr. Ben Moore, a bridge carpenter in the employ of Foreman Harry Duval's gang, is mentioned as a possible successor to Mr. Duval, who was yesterday promoted to supervisor of the Evansville district.

S. S. ASSOCIATION.

WILL CONVENE IN LEXINGTON
TUESDAY FOR THREE DAYS.

The Kentucky Sunday-school association will meet Tuesday in Lexington for a three day's session. Several delegates from Paducah will be in attendance.

Among those on the program are Prof. E. A. Fox, of Louisville, formerly of this city, Rev. T. C. Gebauer, of Henderson, field worker, and George Sehon, Louisville, both of whom are well known here.

Proud of His Alma Mater.

Senator Quarles of Milwaukee has formally accepted the invitation extended by President Angell of the University of Michigan to deliver the baccalaureate address at Ann Arbor on June 18. The senator takes great pride in his alma mater. "I was a poor boy," said he the other day, "and for the fact that the university extended to me a helping hand I never would have the opportunity to climb the ladder. I shall take the utmost pleasure in going back again."

TAKE A NEW POSITION—Dr.

DISGUISED CATARRH

A Stealthy, Insidious, Weakening Enemy to Women—Many Thousand Women Suffer Needlessly From This Cause.

There are a multitude of women, especially housewives, and all other women obliged to be on their feet constantly, who are wracked beyond description, simply because their strength and vitality is sapped away by catarrhal discharges from the pelvic organs. These women get up in the morning tired, drag themselves through their daily duties tired, only to go to bed at night as tired as before.

Mrs. Eva Bartho, 100 East 13th Street, N. Y. City, N. Y., writes—"I suffered for three years with what is generally known as catarrh, in connection with ulceration of the womb. The doctors advised an operation which I endured very much and strongly. I did not go to bed at night. I gave up the use of perfume. I thought it best to give this well-known remedy a trial, so I bought three bottles of it at once. Now I am a changed woman. Peruna cured me. It took nine bottles, but I felt so much improved I took another three. I am now in perfect health, and have not fainted so well for fifteen years."—Mrs. Eva Bartho.

Mrs. Kate Mann, 806 Bathurst Street, Toronto, Ont., Canada, writes—"I suffered for three years for the disease called Peruna, and I am now perfectly well again. I am not in pain, and every drop seems to give me new life, and every dose makes me feel much better, and I promised myself that if I found that Peruna would not cure me, I would never take it again. I would never advise it to any woman, but I have been in perfect health for one year. I enjoy work and pleasure because the Peruna has given me health again. I am in good health, and have not fainted so well for fifteen years."—Mrs. Kate Mann.

Mrs. Louise Mahon, 3 Glen Battle Street, Toronto, Ont., Canada, writes—"I have been suffering from Peruna for three years, and I am now perfectly well again. I am not in pain, and every dose makes me feel much better, and I promised myself that if I found that Peruna would not cure me, I would never take it again. I would never advise it to any woman, but I have been in perfect health for one year. I enjoy work and pleasure because the Peruna has given me health again. I am in good health, and have not fainted so well for fifteen years."—Mrs. Louise Mahon.

Mrs. Anna Martin, 47 Hoyt St., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes—"Peruna did so much for me that I feel it my duty to recommend it to all women who know of its benefits. I have derived great benefit from Peruna. I would have many happier and more healthful women. My health has never been too robust, and I am easily fatigued and can not stand much. About a year ago I was so run down that I had to take to my bed and stay down in bed all day. I took Peruna, and I feel much better now. I have great reason to be grateful, for in two weeks I was out of bed, and in a month I was perfectly well, and I now find that my health is much more robust than formerly, so that I take Peruna once or twice a month and keep well."—Mrs. Anna Martin.

Mrs. Wm. Heilek, Kennard, Washington county, N. Y., writes:

"I am fifty-six years old and have not felt well since the Change of life began ten years ago. I was in misery somehow here most of the time. My back was very weak, my flesh flabby and tender, it hurt me to lean against the back of a chair. I had pain under my shoulder blades. In the seat of my back an aches, I could not sit up in this world. I had cold and chills, dizziness, fainting, loss of the limbs, and was unable to sleep all the time. After following your directions and taking Peruna I now feel well again."—Mrs. Heilek.

If you are suffering from any disease, write to us for a free trial of Peruna, giving a full statement of your case, and we will be pleased to give you our valuable advice.

Peruna can be purchased for $1 per bottle at all drug stores.

Mr. Aleck Craig, of Louisville, is here working up interest in the Ohio Valley Improvement Association and securing members to it. The work of the association is in improving the Ohio river, and its present project is to have improvements authorized by congress that will result in a nine-foot stage the year around to Cairo.

Very little interest has ever been taken at this end of the river in the work because the upper portion of the river gets all the benefit, and according to our congressman, will continue to do so for the next fifty years.

STRENGTH IN FOOD.

A WOMAN'S WORK MADE EASY BY STRENGTH AND HEALTH.

A widow writes: "When I began to use Grape-Nuts I had so much trouble with my stomach and was very nervous, and as I make my living by really hard work I needed all the strength possible, for I have two boys to support.

"I began eating Grape-Nuts simply to try the food, but soon noticed that my trouble was going and my nervousness was much less, so I continued to use Grape-Nuts food, with the result that I am now entirely cured. Grape-Nuts always agreed with me and when I work the hardest it seems to me I enjoy them and need them the most. They satisfy me better and seem to do me more good than meat.

My younger boy, who inherits a weak constitution from his father, who died of consumption, has been greatly benefited by Grape-Nuts. He makes his breakfast of Grape-Nuts and milk and the result of this diet has been that his stomach is much stronger and his appetite increased and altogether he is like another boy.

"I notice this about Grape-Nuts, that when I eat them and go away to work they seem to stay by me and sustain me better during the day than anything else I eat." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

NOT SO ROSY.

The general manager of the People's Telephone Co. of Knoxville has never missed an opportunity of decrying the "Bell" telephone companies, and proclaiming the prosperity of his own. He has made these statements so often that perhaps some people believe them to be true; therefore the following extracts, taken from his statement under a recent date, filed with the state authorities at Nashville, will throw some light on the subject, and as his statement is sworn to it must be considered in a serious light:

"The People's Telephone and Telegraph Co., organized in 1898."

"Interrogatories—Class O."

Stocks and Bonds.

In answer to interrogatory 1 he says: "300 shares of capital stock, par value $100 per share."

"Cash dividends paid since organization of company $900."

"Interrogatories—Class D."

In answer to interrogatory 1 he says: "Total gross earnings from all sources during fiscal year ending January 31, 1903, were $31,726.27."

In answer to interrogatory 4 he says: "The operating expenses and taxes within the state of Tennessee for the last fiscal year ending prior to January 31, 1903, were $31,297.37."

"Interrogatories—Class F."

In answer to interrogatory 3 he says: "We know of no method of estimating the value of such a franchise as ours." Under our franchise, which is only the right to do business, we are compelled to meet competitive conditions, and we must also obey the dictates of the city officials, who can and do require us to move our poles and wires from place to place, and under these conditions we do not consider our franchise can be compared to that of a railroad company. It is also uncertain how soon the franchise may be destroyed."

As a summary we have the following: A company in operation for ten years, with a capital stock of $30,000, on which it has paid $900. This is less than one-third of 1 per cent. For the year it admits a loss in operating expenses of $2,571.10.

As no item is set forth for maintenance of the property it is barely possible that a considerable sum will have to be paid for that purpose.

It appears that there has been some mistake about these "rosy" statements which the general manager of this company has been making.

Every woman in the country ought to know about

Mother's Friend

Those who do know about it wonder how they ever got along without it. It has relieved childhood of its terrors for many a young wife. It has preserved her girlish figure and saved her from pain. It is an external liniment and eases with it therefore, absolutely no danger of upsetting the system as drugs taken internally are apt to do. It is to be rubbed into the abdomen to soften and strengthen the muscles which are to bear the strain. This means much less pain. It also prevents morning sickness and all of the other discomforts of pregnancy. A druggist of Macon, Ga., says:

"I have sold a large quantity of Mother's Friend and have never known an instance where it has failed to produce the good results claimed for it."

SUE UNIONS.

A NUMBER OF DAMAGE SUITS FILED AT CHICAGO

Chicago, Aug. 15—Damage suits against labor unions and members of unions aggregating $86,000 were filed in Chicago courts yesterday. John M. Stiles, painting contractor, who alleges that his business has been ruined by labor unions, sued the Painters' District Council and unions affiliated in the Building Trades Councils for $50,000.

The American Boycott association is pushing the case for Stiles.

The Kellogg Switchboard and Supply Co. filed two suits, each for $15,000, against unions involved in the strike which terrorized Chicago several weeks ago and is still on. In addition to these cases, six young women, employees of the Kellogg Switchboard and Supply Co., have sued eight women, who participated in the Kellogg strike, for slander and libel, each case being for $1,000 damages.

OUTING SPOTS IN THE NORTHWEST

There are many places in the country of the Northern Pacific, some inexpensive, others better and more expensive, where one can spend the summer days pleasantly and healthfully. Among these are Walker in the Leech Lake country, and Detroit and Battle Lake in the Lake Park region in Minnesota; Eaton's ranch, near Melrose, N. D.; Hunter's Hot Springs in the Yellowstone valley, and Missoula and the Bitterroot valley in Montana; Lakes Pend Oreille and Cour d'Alene, Idaho; North Yakima in Eastern Washington, and Green River Hot Springs in the Cascades; Tacoma, Seattle, Port Townsend, Port Angeles and Victoria on Puget Sound, and many places along the Columbia river and on the Pacific Ocean from Portland as a center.

Those east of the Mississippi who wish a needed change should go to the Rockies or the Puget Sound and Columbia river and sea coast country. We can only hint at these things here, but write us giving particulars as near as you can, and we will try to give you the needed information to enable you to find what you want. And don't forget that Yellowstone Park is the chief of all tourist shrines.

(Based Upon the Mystery Surrounding the Fate of the Dauphin, Son of Louis XVI, and Marie Antoinette)

Copyright, 1901, by the BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY

I thought how easy it would be to strip the loose surplice over the sacristan's head. There was a swift clip of the arm around your opponent's neck which I had learned in wrestling that cut the breath off and dropped him as limp as a cloth. It was an Indian trick. I told to myself it would be impossible to use that trick on the sacristan. If he left the cell behind the deaf old priest, I did not want to hurt him. Still he only one foot passenger troubled me. I was on the bridge above the left arm of the river when an ear trained in the woods caught his footstep, pausing as mine paused and hurrying as mine hurried. If the sacristan had been found in Ste. Pelagie a pursuer would not track me so relentlessly, and neither would Skenehonk hold back on the trail. I stopped in the shade when we two were alone on the second span and wheeled, certain of entangling my man under the thorn of a cresset. I caught him and knew that it was Belenger following me.

My mind was made up in an instant. I walked back to settle matters with him, though slaughter was far from my thoughts. I had done him no harm, but he was my enemy and should be forced to let me alone.

The fellow who had appeared so feeble at his cabin that I opened the door for him, and so poor spirited that his intellect claimed pity, stood up as Ira as a bear at my approach and met my eyes with perfect understanding.

Not another thing do I remember. The facts are simply these: I faced Belenger; no blows passed; my mind dashed blank with the partial return of that old eclipse which has fallen upon me after strong excitement in more than one critical moment. The blazes seems brief when I awake, though it may have lasted hours. I know the eclipse has been upon me like the wing shadow of eternity, but I have scarcely let go of time.

I could not prove that Belenger dragged me to the parapet and threw me into the river. If I had known it I should have laughed at his doing so for I could swim like a fish through or under water and sit on the lake bottom holding my breath until Skenehonk had been known to dive for me.

Then he placed a lighted candle in the stiffened fingers and ended with: "A speck in your ardor, custodian of the truth."

I said to myself, "I cannot do it! Nobody could!" It is impossible?"

The sacristan now began to strip the altar and pack all the sacred implements into their cases, preparing his load in the center of the room. The man was dead.

The sacristan rapped upon the door to let the turnkey know that it was time to unlock. The turnkey opened a gap of doorway through which he could see the candle and the bed. He opened me wider than the breadth of the priest, who stepped out as the sacristan bent for the portable.

There was lightning in my arm, would have a better chance to live if I had squeezed his neck than I should have if I did not squeeze it.

The priest dipped his thumb in oil and with it crossed the eyes, ears, nose, mouth and hands of him who was leaving the use of these five senses and instruments of evil.

When next I sensed anything at all it was a feeling of cold.

I thought I was lying in one of the shallow rivulets that come into Lake George, and the pebbles were an injury bed, chilling my shoulders. I was too stiff to move or even turn my head on which it rested, but I could not lose my eyes, and this is what I saw: A man naked to his waist half reclining against a leaning slab of marble down which a layer of water constantly moved. His legs were clothed, and his other garments lay across them. His face had sagged in my direction. There was a deep slash across his forehead, and he showed his teeth and his glassy eyes at the joke.

Beyond this silent figure was a worm-like silent. The ridge of his body could not hide the long hair spread in a forest. I considered the company and the mortise into which I had fallen with insipidly admiration. We were in a low and wide stone chamber with a groined ceiling supported by stone pillars. A row of lamps was arranged above us so that no trait or feature might escape a beholder.

That we were put there for show entered my mind slowly and brought indignation. To be so helpless and so exposed was an outrage against which I struggled in nightmare impotence, for I was bare to my hips also, and I knew not what other marks I carried besides those which had scared me all my conscious life.

Now in the distance, and echoing, foot descended stairs.

I knew that people were coming to look at us, and I could not move a muscle in resentment.

I heard their voices, fringed with echoes, before either speaker came within my vision.

"This is the mortuary chapel of the Hotel Dien!"

"Yes, monsieur the marquis, this is the mortuary chapel."

"Um! Cheerful place."

"Much more cheerful than the bottom of the river, monsieur the marquis."

"No doubt. Never empty, eh?"

"I have been a servant of the Hotel Dien fourteen years, monsieur the marquis, and have not seen all the marble slabs vacant."

"You receive the bodies of the dead?"

"And place them where they may be seen and claimed."

"How long do you keep them?"

"That depends. Sometimes their friends seek them at once. We have kept a body three months in the winter season, though he turned very green."

"Are all in your present collection gathered together?"

"No, monsieur. We have a very fresh one, just brought in—a big, stalwart fellow with the look of the company about him."

"Small clothes?"

"Yes, monsieur."

"Underclothes?"

"Yes, monsieur."

"Hair light and long?"

"The very man, monsieur the marquis."

"I suppose I shall have to look at him. If he had to make himself unpleasant he should have stayed at the chateau, where his mother could identify him. He is one of my peasants come to Paris to see life. I must hold my nose and do it."

"It is not necessary to hold the nose, monsieur."
